THE SAVING INFLUENCE.

Pure Americanism Will Be Salvation of Country Says Loomis.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Speaking of the Southern States at the banquet of the Southern Society last night Francis B. Loomis, former assistant secretary of state said: "The uncontaminated the uncalculating Americanism of the south promises to be a potent, a conservative saving influence at the time when people are talking of strained economic conditions or political unrest and social upheaval."

"We have been told with lavish expenditure of energy that pretty much everything is wrong. Furthermore we are informed that no government can be counted a success which permits the rich to grow richer while the poor grow poorer."

"Certain of the counts in the indictment unfortunately are justified. In so far as ideas of commercial and public conditions have been elevated and better standards of business or political morality evolved, the present agitation has been invaluable. But there is no valid reason for belittling our government."

"I am sure that in this period the possessors of the undiluted American blood of the south will see clearly and act wisely."

"They will recognize realities and conditions as they actually are."

AID PROFESSIONAL MEN.

LOS ANGELES, April 27.—H. E. Huntington yesterday opened with a gift of thirty thousand dollars a fund to alleviate the ruined fortunes of professional men and women who lost their all in the San Francisco disaster. The statement made public by Mr. Huntington anent gift is in part as follows:

"During my recent visit to San Francisco I was struck most forcibly by the misfortune that had accrued to professional men by reason of the disaster. The sturdy laboring man will find work at one and through the assistance of the relief committees and the abundant call of labor, will soon be on his feet again and in almost as good condition as he was before the earthquake."

"It seemed to me that as a class the lawyers, doctors and other professional men, do depend upon libraries, skill and their clients for support, are most heavily hit. I know personally of many professional men who lost their libraries, homes, instruments and everything but the clothes they were wearing. These men are not well equipped to do manual labor and must take a practically new start in their professional career with little or nothing to begin with."

ELIJAH SMITH MISSING.

Well-Known Capitalist May Have Lost His Life in Bay City.

PORTLAND, April 27.—Not a word has been heard from Elijah Smith, of this city, president of the Southern Oregon Company, since the destruction of San Francisco. He was stopping at the Lick house, which was toppled into a shapeless mass of ruin by the earthquake and later swept over by the fire. Many lives were lost in the destruction of the Lick house, and Mr. Smith's friends in Portland greatly fear that he was among the killed.

It is reported that his brother, Prosper Smith, who lives in Boston, has already left that city on his way to San Francisco in search for him. Mr. Shine, who represents the Smith brothers in Coos County, Oregon, left Empire City for San Francisco several days ago to join in the search.

Elijah Smith was at one time president of the O. R. & N., and with his brother, Prosper Smith, owned in Coos County over 1000,000 acres of timber land and a saw mill. They also owned 150 miles of railroad in Texas and a number of coal mines in Montana.

Their local attorneys are Dolph, Mallory, Simon & Gearin.

ASTORIA CITIZENS IN RUSSIAN PRISON.

Senator Fulton Brings Case of Theodore Smith to Attention of Department.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Tonnies Sett, a naturalized Finn, who formerly lived at Astoria, Or., where he was known as Theodore Smith, has been thrown into a dungeon at Pseoff, Russia, for no apparent cause and is in danger of losing his life, according to information received by Senator Fulton. He has laid the facts at hand before the State Department, and Secretary Root promptly cabled the United States Ambassador at St. Petersburg to ask for a stay of proceedings until investigation can be made.

If it develops that Sett is improperly confined the Senator will ask this Government, through the State Department to demand his release, but if confined for cause will insist upon his having a fair trial.

BUILD MODEL CITY

Indiana Steel Company Laying Out the Site.

WILL BE CALLED "GARRY"

Steel Company Will Erect the Largest Steel Mills in the World and build Town Around Them

CHICAGO, April 27.—The stupendous work of building a model city to accommodate 100,000 people was begun yesterday when 100 wood cutters were set at work clearing up a six thousand acre tract on the shore of Lake Michigan in Lake County, Indiana. At the same time another hundred laborers began the work of leveling the huge sand dunes to the east of the mouth of the grand Calumet where the newly organized Indiana Steel Company proposes to build the largest steel mills in the world at a cost of $10,000,000. The new city is to be built to accommodate the toilers at the mills.

The carrying out of the magic plans of the company in making a city spring suddenly from the waste of sand dunes will involve the dredging and straightening of a river, the building of a harbor and the purchase of two towns one of which will be moved across the stream Calumet Heights already has passed into the hands of the company and the buildings are being converted into homes for employees. Clark Junction at the western extremity of the town site will be moved over to the Grand Calumet river to make a place for a railroad yard center.

A canal will be made connecting the Grand river with the Michigan and making the stream navigable for barges as far as Hammond, ten miles west. A novel system of handling the sewerage of the new city will involve the construction of a channel from Little Calumet river to the south.

The new Indiana Steel Company is a subsidiary corporation to the United States Steel Corporation and was organized recently.

The new city will be known as "Garry," being named after the chairman of the board of directors of the steel corporation.

The mills will handle 5,000,000 tons of ore yearly and will produce from 2,500,000 tons of steel. There will be sixteen blast furnaces, 84 open hearth furnaces and six rolling mills. In steel mills alone the production will be 75,000 tons monthly.

ARRIVES HOME.

F. J. Taylor, and Family Return From San Francisco after Trying Experience

F. J. Taylor, arrived in Astoria last night accompanied by his wife and two daughters, after passing through the earthquake and fire in San Francisco. He states that he is more than glad to once more get back to Astoria and the land where earthquakes never come. During the catastrophe Mr. Taylor and family were stopping at a house of friends on the corner of Pine and Taylor streets. The earthquake damaged the house to some extent, but it would have been saved from destruction had not the flames took it. After the house burned Mr. Taylor and family walked the streets all Wednesday night, in common with the thousands of other panic-stricken and homeless people. "The flames were beautiful but terrifying, as every minute we expected the fire would break out around us," said Mr. Taylor. In the morning we found the house of a friend on Sacramento street outside of the burned district, and here we remained until Saturday, when we left for Oakland.

PLAY FOR CHAMPIONSHIP.

NEW YORK, April 27.—George F. Slosson, who won the world's championship at eighteen inch balk line, two shots in, in the recent tournament at Madison Square Garden, announces that he will accept the challenge issued by George B. Sutton, who finished second.

The match will be played here in the last week in October. It will be 500 points up for the championship, a stake of $500 a side and the net receipts. Slosson is in Saratoga practicing for the Chicago contest. He will start for Chicago early next month. The net receipts of the recent tournament were $4,200, which with the purse of $3,000 offered by the promoters and $1,500 yielded a small fortune to the winner.

TO ENLARGE SCOPE

Irving Club to Broaden Field of Work.

WILL BE COMMERCIAL CLUB

Members Meet Last Night and Decided to Increase Membership—May Change Name of Organization—New Rooms.

The members of the Irving Club met last night in the club rooms and took decisive and important action toward changing and widening the scope of their organization. Hitherto the club has not dealt with the Commercial interests of the city, but now it has been decided to take up this matter and steps were taken last night which will ultimately lead to the club becoming one of the most powerful in the Northwest. The work which it is designed the club shall do, is along the lines pursued by the commercial clubs of other large cities like Portland, Seattle and Tacoma.

As a sort of initiatory proceedings in the commencing of the new work the members of the club adopted a resolution, making the work of the organization broader, and so as to take in all the commercial projects which come up before the citizens from time to time, and deal with them, and bring such projects which tend for the improvement of the city, to a successful conclusion. This new object which the club members have in mind will probably involve a change in the name of the organization, through plans have not yet matured definitely enough to state whether this will be done.

At the present time the club has about 100 members, but in the new work of the club, it is intended to increase this membership to at least 100 additional members. This part of the new program is absolutely necessary for the success of the proposed project.

Along with the widening of the scope of the organization, it is the intention of the club to secure the entire fourth floor of the new Savings Bank building which will be fitted up in a substantial manner for club rooms, where banquets and meetings of all kinds relating to the club's work can be given. The owners of the building state that they will probably add this additional story to the building, if they are assured of the club's intention to enlarge their quarters.
